

WASHINGTON - Congressman John W. Olver (D-1st District) issued the following statement today:

"Yesterday, the Bush Administration released its final proposed regulations on overtime pay.

"The regulations would strip overtime rights and pay from workers. They would immediately

"The regulations would mean a pay cut for workers. The Administration has actually made

"The regulations would mean longer hours and fewer jobs. Workers

"Middle-class families are already feeling the pinch of President Bush's
